- I do not use any software programs that would use any of your data in any way.
- My website is hosted on the Wix.com platform. Wix.com provides me with the online platform that allows me to process your support. Your data may be stored through Wix.com's data storage, databases and the general Wix.com applications. They store your data on secure servers behind a firewall.
- All direct payment gateways offered by Wix.com and used by me in the processing of your orders adhere to the standards set by PCI-DSS as managed by the PCI Security Standards Council, which is a joint effort of brands like Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Discover. PCI-DSS requirements help ensure the secure handling of credit card information by my payment processors.

Cookies:

- I do not use any cookies on my website.
- I do not have any ads that link to other sites which may use cookies.
- My website is hosted by Wix.com. They have about a dozen cookies that they consider essential, mostly for security, fraud, and monitoring/debugging.
- Any other third-party cookies from browsers, etc. are beyond my control and I do not participate in their use. They should be addressed in your regular security settings.

Should you have a problem with any of these terms and conditions, you are welcome to give me a call, text, or email and we can discuss it. My website is simple, and, though unlikely, should anything come up that I have not anticipated, I reserve the right to change these terms to solve the issue, and will adequately note it on the website.
